

Support a Healthier Marin with your Sponsorship

With its network of clinics and 50+ years of experience providing high-quality health care services, Marin Community Clinics is a cornerstone of health and wellness. The Summer Solstice Celebration is our opportunity to pause, reflect, and look towards creating a healthier future for all.

Marin Community Clinics is Marin County's largest nonprofit community health center, offering comprehensive medical, dental, and behavioral health services to anyone who needs our services. This event brings the community together to support access to health care for all, including people with low income.
